Simon de Senlis Primary Weekly Update – 30th September 2022

Dear Parents and Carers,

The school has been full again with the buzz of learning and I have had the privilege to visit every class and see every child at work, engrossed and happy in their learning. This positive behaviour for learning is resulting in great outcomes, after only four weeks of the term. Chatting to the children on the playground, it is lovely to hear of the great reading that is taking place at home, again, the buzz for reading is filling the school. Knowing that the children enjoy their learning is such a wonderful thing to be part of.

This afternoon, I have had the privilege of listening to 40 children in Year 6 present their speeches to become House and Sports Captains. Each child spoke with confidence, assurance and passion and it was fabulous to see so many children strive to be leaders in school- how proud we are of each child. As I write, the votes are being counted and we will hear at 3:15pm who will be our new leaders- good luck everyone, you all deserve those positions!!

Please take care over the weekend and I look forward to seeing you next week.

Mrs Fennelly

Tips to prevent cyberbullying

- Be engaged – Talk to your child about what they like to do online and what they know about how to stay safe – see tips from Childnet
  - Be kind online – Being positive and respectful online is key to using the internet safely. Share 'Top Internet Manners' with them
  - Know how to report – Make sure your child knows how to report cyberbullying if it happens to them or someone else
- Never retaliate – remind your child that saying mean things back to a bully makes the situation worse
  - Save the evidence – encourage your child to save messages, photos and screenshots of online bullying as proof to show to a trusted adult
  - Explore the games and apps your child uses together and find report and block buttons to understand what they do

Miss Garrard says...

Please be aware of cyber bullying online. If your child has access to TikTok, or any other form of social media, we would strongly advise that you monitor the use of this app.

1. Talk to them about Cyberbullying

Users can leave comments on videos posted so, this may leave your child open to receiving negative messages. Giving them guidance about what to do if they are cyberbullied or see others being cyberbullied will help them to keep themselves safe.

- Think carefully about allowing your child on social media as the minimum age on most networks is 13 years old
- Cyberbullying can take place 24/7 and happens repeatedly on a range of apps, games and devices
- Younger children can confuse any nasty comment or opinion as 'bullying' so their understanding of bullying can be different to that of adults
- Bullying is a learnt behaviour – so it's important to set a good example and regularly reinforce being a good digital citizen

Miss Garrard says...

Here is some more useful information about TikTok.

At National Online Safety, we believe in empowering parents, carers and trusted adults with the information to hold an informed conversation about online safety with their children, should they feel it is needed. This guide focuses on one app of many which we believe trusted adults should be aware of. ## What Parents & Carers Need to Know about

TIKTOK

AGE RESTRICTION 13+

TikTok is a video-sharing social media app which lets people create, view and download looping 15-second clips. Typically, these are videos of users lip-syncing and dancing to popular songs or soundbites (often for comic purposes), enhanced with filters, effects and text. Designed with young people in mind, TikTok skyrocketed in popularity in 2019 and has featured near the top of download charts ever since. It now has around a billion users worldwide.

AGE-INAPPROPRIATE CONTENT

Most videos appearing on a child's feed are light-hearted and amusing. However, some clips have been reported for featuring drug and alcohol abuse, themes of suicide and self-harm, or young teens acting in a sexually suggestive way. The sheer volume of uploads is impossible to moderate entirely – and since TikTok Jump's introduction in mid-2021, users can view third-party content outside the app.

18 CENSORED

EXPLICIT SONGS

TikTok primarily revolves around videos of users lip-syncing and dancing to music. Inevitably, some featured songs will contain explicit or suggestive lyrics. Given the app's young user-base, there is a risk that children may view older users' videos and then be inclined to imitate any explicit language or suggestive actions.

W&#*!

TIKTOK FAME

The app has created its own celebrities: Charli D'Amelio and Lil Nas X, for example, were catapulted to fame by exposure on TikTok – leading to many more teens attempting to go viral and become "TikTok famous". While most aspiring stars hoping to be 'the next big thing' will find it difficult, setbacks may in turn prompt them to go to even more drastic lengths to get noticed.

CELEBRITY

HAZARDOUS VISIBILITY

Connecting with others is simple on TikTok – including commenting on and reacting to users' videos, following their profile and downloading their content. The majority of these interactions are harmless, but – because of its abundance of teen users – TikTok has experienced problems with predators contacting young people.

ADDICTIVE NATURE

Like all social media, TikTok is designed to be addictive. It can be hugely entertaining – but that also makes it hard to put down. As well as the punchy nature of the short video format, the app's ability to keep users intrigued about what's coming next mean it's easy for a 5-minute visit to turn into a 45-minute stay.

IN-APP SPENDING

There's an in-app option to purchase 'TikTok coins', which are then converted into digital rewards for sending to content creators that a user likes. Prices range from 99p to an eye-watering £99 bundle. TikTok is also connected with Shopify, which allows users to buy products through the app.

Miss Garrard says...

Please read this advice about supporting children who are using TikTok.

Advice for Parents & Carers

TALK ABOUT ONLINE CONTENT

Assuming your child is above TikTok's age limit, talk to them about what they've viewed on the app. Ask their opinion on what's appropriate and what isn't. Explain why they shouldn't give out personal details or upload videos which reveal information like their school or home address. In the long run, teaching them to think critically about what they see on TikTok could help them to become social-media savvy.

MAINTAIN PRIVACY SETTINGS

The default setting for all under 18s' accounts to 'private'. Keeping it that way is the safest solution: it means only users who your child approves can watch their videos. The 'Stitch' (which lets users splice clips from other people's videos into their own) and 'Duet' (where you build on another user's content by recording your own video alongside their original) features are now only available to over 18s. This might clash with your child's ambitions of social media stardom, but it will fortify their account against predators.

LEARN ABOUT REPORTING AND BLOCKING

With the correct privacy settings applied, TikTok is a relatively safe space. However, in case something does slip through, make sure your child knows how to recognise and report inappropriate content and get them to come to you about anything upsetting that they've seen. TikTok allows users to report anyone breaching its guidelines, while you can also block individual users through their profile.

ENABLE FAMILY PAIRING

'Family Pairing' lets parents and carers link their own TikTok account to their child's. Through your mobile, you can control your child's safety settings remotely – including limiting screen time, managing their ability to exchange messages (and with whom) and blocking a lot of age-inappropriate content. TikTok's Safety Centre also provides resources for parents and carers to support online safety among families. These resources can be found on their website.

USE RESTRICTED MODE

In the app's 'Digital Wellbeing' section, you can filter out inappropriate content (specific content creators or hashtags, for instance) using 'Restricted Mode'. This can then be locked with a PIN. You should note, though, that the algorithm moderating content isn't totally dependable – so it's wise to stay aware of what your child is watching.

MODERATE SCREEN TIME

As entertaining as TikTok is, you can help your child to manage their time on it in the 'Digital Wellbeing' section. Under 'Screen Time Management', you can limit the daily permitted time on the app (in increments ranging from 40 minutes to two hours). This preference can also be locked behind a PIN. That way, your child can get their regular dose of TikTok without wasting the whole day.

Warm up activity

journey round the body

Get your heart pumping and muscles moving

how to play

Mark out a safe play area. Then stick six cards numbered 1-6, in different places around the area. Write an activity on each that targets a different part of the body. How about 'lungs' – jump ten times and shout as you count? Or 'muscles' – do five star jumps?

Divide the group between the numbered areas. Then everyone has to find their pulse (at the wrist or neck) and count it for ten seconds. Write down your number or make sure you remember it. Then jog, or hop or jump round the circuit with a partner and do the activity at each spot. After each activity take your pulse again for ten seconds – watch how it rises!

Safety: make sure there is enough space between the areas for everyone to do the activity.

equipment

Cones, skipping ropes, balls or other equipment, depending on the activities you choose.

sporting connection

This activity helps you warm up, get your muscles moving and your heart pumping.

That's the ideal way to start training for just about any Olympic or Paralympic sport from archery to golf.

did you know?

The modern day Olympic motto in Latin is "citius, altius, fortius" which means faster, higher, stronger. Paralympian Danielle Brown lives out this motto – she's won Archery Gold despite her physical challenges.

Get Moving!

Keep warm and raise your heart rate. See if you can find your pulse and count how many beats your heart is pumping. Try out different activities and get your heart to beat faster!

Have fun and stay active, Miss Bland

Dear Head Teacher

2022 Annual Christmas Card Competition

Welcome back to school and the new term! I do wish all the staff and pupils a successful year ahead. I know it has been a difficult calendar year for all schools, and please do let me know if I can ever be of assistance to you.

As I have done for the last seven years, I will be holding my annual Christmas card competition amongst all the primary schools in South Northamptonshire and would be delighted if some of your students would like to participate.

I attach a copy of last year's Christmas card which I am sure you will agree was exceptional!

The aim is to get a couple of pictures submitted by each school, and so it would be great if you could hold your own competition to select which pictures should represent the school in the final round.

The deadline for the submissions will be Monday, 7th November in order to give us sufficient time to judge the winner and runners-up and then in time to get the cards printed. The cards, with the winner and two runners up printed on the front and back, are then used by me as my Christmas card to all my friends and colleagues, including the Prime Minister.

All entries should be passed to my constituency office at:

The Rt Hon. Dame Andrea Leadsom MP
1 Victoria House,
138 Watling Street East
Towcester
NN12 6BT

On the back of each entry please clearly print the name of the school, the artist/students full name and their age.

I will be holding a special presentation tea party with Christmas games and food for all the runners up and finalists including their parent/guardian or school teacher on Thursday 15th December at 3.30 at The Forum, Towcester.

Member of Parliament for South Northamptonshire

Constituency Office: 01327 353124 andrea.leadsom.mp@parliament.uk www.andrealeadsom.com

Would you like to enter the Christmas card competition? If yes, please bring your entry to school and hand in at the front office. Remember to write your name and class on the back of your entry. Please make sure your entry is in school by October 19th.

2022

Tree climbing champion

Josephine Hedger has expertly climbed her way to her sixth European Tree Climbing Championship win! The expert arborist, or tree surgeon, has claimed the title for the fifth time in a row! Each individual competitor completes five preliminary events, climbers are judged on speed, skill, and technique. The men and women with the top points then compete again on a second day, climbing a tree to reach marked points within a specific time.

The European Tree Climbing Championship (ETCC) described the event on its website as providing a competitive but educational opportunity for working arborists in Europe to demonstrate and exchange new climbing techniques and equipment, as well as safe work practices. The winners of the European competition held in Brussels, Belgium, go onto scale more trees at the world championships.

Hydrogen-powered passenger train

The world's first 100 percent hydrogen-powered passenger train has been launched! Coradia iLint trains, manufactured by French manufacturer Alstom, are now operating in Lower Saxony, Germany. Around half of Europe's railway network is electric, but some lines are too difficult to install overhead cables on. This has left diesel trains as the only option – until now! Alstom has stated that the hydrogen-powered trains only emit steam and water and make very little noise. Henri Poupart-Lafarge, CEO and Chairman of the Board of Alstom said, "The world's first hydrogen train, the Coradia iLint, demonstrates our clear commitment to green mobility combined with state-of-the-art technology. We are very proud to bring this technology into series operation as part of a world premiere, together with our great partners."

Chimps' 'signature' drum beat

A recent study has suggested wild chimpanzees communicate by showing off their 'signature' drum beats, through drumming on tree roots, with their own individual style! Scientists, who studied chimps in the Ugandan rainforest, found that the animals used their signature drumming rhythms to communicate with each other over long distances, revealing where they are, and what they are doing. Dr Catherine Hobaiter from the University of St Andrews explained that the wild apes use huge tree roots as a large wooden surface to drum on with their hands and feet, "If you hit the roots really hard, it resonates and makes this big deep, booming sound that travels through the forest. We could often recognise who was drumming when we heard them; it was a fantastic way to find the different chimpanzees we were looking for. So, if we could do it, we were sure they could too."

Last week's topic:

What can we do if we feel things aren't fair?

I think the best way is to make your point clear and find people who will listen. Show people the problem so they can see for themselves.

Jake

I understand people strike for a better pay check but the effect on the average person is massive.

Luca

Speak up and tell as many people as you can!

Candy

I think it doesn't matter how old you are your voice deserves to be heard!!

Chloe
